

Aboriginal Culture in Early Learning Kindergarten

Colin pulls on the deer hide to prepare it for lacing the hand drum, while Andrew explores the hide.

Dale builds a beaver dam for our beaver puppet. The beaver is hiding from the timber wolf.

Colin feeds the eagle fish during puppet playtime.

During a lesson about the Grandmother drum, Jenny tells Isabelle that you don't "wack" the drum, just like you wouldn't "wack" your grandmother.

Mackenzie, Aidan and Gracen prepare fish on the fire.

Chris Taggart (dad) reads a book to John-Michael, Keziah and Aiden during a class visit.

Snowshoeing at the Sheguiandah Pow Wow grounds.

Students snowshoe through a teepee frame in Aundeck Omni Kaning.
