

Aboriginal Support Worker

Promotes a welcoming environment for First Nation, Métis and Inuit students and their families

Supports student, family and school connections

Facilitates student transitions

Works within the framework of the Seven Grandfather's Teachings

Promotes regular school attendance, credit accumulation and participation in school life

Rainbow Schools

Reaching minds. Touching hearts.

Brian Slegers is the Aboriginal Support Worker at Lasalle Secondary School, Lo-Ellen Park Secondary School and Lockerby Composite School. Brian is of Ojibway and French descent and is from the Sudbury area. He has an honours degree in Native Human Services from Laurentian University and a diploma in Traditional Aboriginal Healing Methods from St. Clair College. He is currently completing his Masters in Health Sciences from the University of Alberta.

“The Aboriginal Support Worker program has been extremely beneficial for students. I am here to assist them with transitions and to help them succeed and inspire them to achieve.”

Brian can be reached at slegerb@rainbowschools.ca

www.rainbowschools.ca