You decide!

Typical Process leading to certification:

Financial Support for Youth Apprentices after high school graduation

- The apprenticeship Incentive Grant (AIG) taxable cash grant of $1,000 for first and second year up to a maximum of $2,000 per apprentice available to apprentices in RED SEAL trades.
Apply to be considered for this grant: www.rhdcc-hrsdc.gc.ca
- The Apprenticeship Completion Grant (ACG) $2,000 one time taxable cash grant available to apprentices who have completed an apprenticeship training program and have obtained certification in a RED SEAL trade.
Apply to be considered for this grant: www.rhdcc-hrsdc.gc.a
- The Apprenticeship Completion Bonus in Non Red Seal Trades one-time $2,000 taxable benefit for apprentices who have completed apprenticeship training and have received certification.
Apply for this bonus: www.tcu.gov.on.ca
- Loans for Tool Program (up to $800 depending on the trades) interest free loan to help apprentices buy tools and equipment to perform the tasks of their trade
Apply for this loan: www.cra-arc.gc.ca
- Support for Non-Eligible Apprentices grants up to $1,500 per term to assist with the costs to attend in-school training (trades school) for apprentices not eligible for employment insurance
Apply to be considered for this grant: www.tcu.gov.on.ca
- Apprenticeship Scholarship $1,000 to support individuals who require academic upgrading to meet the academic requirements for apprenticeship training

Certified skilled trades people enjoy many career opportunities in addition to trade certification.

The sky's the limit for people in the trades!
