

Give the gift of music. Donate to the Joan Mantle Music Trust.

“Music is a universal language that enriches the mind and nourishes the spirit. When students gain an appreciation of music and learn practical skills, they discover a source of enjoyment and personal satisfaction that will last a lifetime.”
Joan Mantle

Joan Mantle, a long-time educator with Rainbow District School Board, knew the value of music for young people. She knew that music opens doors and that music is part of a well-rounded education that reinforces academic skills and nurtures life skills.

She also knew that music encourages creative and critical thinking, develops literacy skills, promotes teamwork, and fosters an overall appreciation of the arts.

The Joan Mantle Music Trust supports music education by allocating funds to schools to purchase new instruments and musical equipment.

We invite community members to make a donation to the Trust. Your generous contribution will have a lasting impact on music education in Rainbow Schools.

For additional information about the Joan Mantle Music Trust, please contact Ralph McIntosh at mcintor@rainbowschools.ca.

Thank you for your kind consideration. We appreciate your support.

Sincerely,
