C. PRESENTATIONS

Monitoring Board and School Improvement Plans

Superintendent Noble spoke about memory vs. working memory. She introduced principal Danielle Williamson and Principal Trevor Dewit to present what worked with students at their schools last year.

1. Princess Anne Public School

Principal Danielle Williamson spoke about the focus on working memory in math for intermediate students at Princess Anne PS during the 2016-2017 school year. Principal Williamson spoke about teacher leadership required to support working memory deficits and shared stories about what worked for Princess Anne PS students.

Trustees had the opportunity to discuss and ask questions.

2. R.H. Murray Public School

Principal Trevor Dewit shared information with trustees about improving working memory for students and staff at R.H. Murray PS. He spoke about of how the brain works, mindfulness, readiness for learning, the advantage of sport, SPARK and music, use of visuals and procedural binders for students, as well as the importance of repetition.

Trustees were given the opportunity to ask questions and comment.

Trustees were appreciative of the informative presentations.
