Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) Draft Action Plan

Director Blaseg introduced Kathy Dokis, Principal of Indigenous Education, to present the draft Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) Draft Action Plan to trustees.

Reference was made to the motion that was passed on April 25, 2017

Motion: 17-R77, G.Fox/J.Hunda

The Rainbow District School Board respectfully acknowledges the work of the National Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) regarding residential schools in Canada and the resulting 94 Calls to Action, including the Calls to Action specifically related to education.

Be it resolved that the Rainbow District School Board:

- i) Commit to the development of a Truth and Reconciliation Action Plan in consultation with the First Nation Advisory Committee and the Urban Indigenous Advisory Committee;*
- ii) Commit that all students graduate with knowledge of residential schools and their devastating impacts on Indigenous communities in Canada and recognize the importance of their contributions to the reconciliation process;*
- iii) Commit that all students graduate with an understanding of the significance of the treaties and the shared history of First Nations and non-Indigenous Ontarians;*
- iv) Commit to the continued implementation and development of Anishinaabemowin programs;*
- v) Commit to provide opportunities to all staff and students to learn more about the richness of Indigenous worldview and cultures, working hand-in-hand with Indigenous peoples;*
- vi) Commit to implement, promote and enforce anti-racism strategies as it relates to Indigenous students, families and communities. - Carried*

Principal Dokis informed trustees of the lengthy consultation process that has taken place prior to the presentation of this draft document. She spoke about the action plan priorities and gave several examples from each area.

Gordon (Chop) Waindubence, Aboriginal Support Worker, spoke to trustees about the importance of the contents of this document.

Trustees had the opportunity to ask questions and provide comments. While pleased that Rainbow District School Board is ahead of many school boards with work done on the Truth & Reconciliation Action Plan, trustees recognize and accept that there is still much work to be done. This document is the beginning.

Trustees expressed appreciation to Principal Dokis.
