Occasional Teachers must apply to be on the Occasional Teacher List each school year. Do not assume that we will know that you want to teach the following school year. Applying for Another Panel

Occasional Teachers currently on one of the Occasional Teacher Lists (Elementary or Secondary) that wish to be considered for the other panel must indicate their interest on the Appendix C. Applicants who meet the qualifications/criteria for that panel will be required to go through the interview process to be added to the additional panel.

Retired Teachers

Beginning September 1, 2012 a retired teacher will be able to work directly or indirectly for a TPP participating employer without affecting their Teacher's Pension for up to 50 days in a school year. Employers will report re-employment service without contributions. Retired teachers are required to track their days and contact TPP if they exceed the re-employment limit of 50 days. Please call TPP directly at 1-800-668-0105 if you have any questions regarding re-employment after retirement and to arrange contribution remittances.

How the Occasional Teacher List is Used

The Occasional Teacher List is developed by panel (Elementary and Secondary) and is available to the school Administration through the RDSB secure intranet site. In addition, the Board uses the services of Apply to Education to secure daily supply teachers.

Calls to Occasional Teachers may be made by individual Principals, Vice Principals, school secretaries or Apply to Education. There is no guarantee of receiving daily supply assignments. Every attempt is made to give teachers advance notice of assignments however; teachers will also receive calls early in the morning for assignments on that day.

Obligations of an Occasional Teacher

Candidates who are selected for our List must advise Human Resources of any changes in address, phone numbers, email addresses, or availability at 705-674-3171 extension 7298 or by email at hrt@rainbowschools.ca. If you are on the list, we will assume you are available.
